Transient vacation rentals are prohibited, excluding bed and breakfast homes permitted under chapter 19.64 of this title, short-term rental homes permitted under chapter 19.65 of this title, transient vacation rental units permitted by a conditional permit under chapter 19.40 of this title, and hotels that are permitted based on the applicable zoning in the comprehensive zoning ordinance.

B. Existing time share units, time share plans, and transient vacation rentals [which] that were operating pursuant to and under law and [which] were registered pursuant to chapter 514E of the Hawaii Revised Statutes as of the effective date of the ordinance codified in this section shall not be impaired by the provisions of this section; provided, that any time share project operating under law that records in the bureau of conveyances within sixty days of the effective date of the ordinance codified in this section, a declaration in a form prescribed by the director [of planning] shall be deemed exempt from this section [so] as long as the project or apartment unit identified by the declaration continues to operate under a lawful time share plan or registration.

C. Time share units, time share plans, and transient vacation rentals are allowed in the hotel district and transient vacation rentals are allowed as special uses in the service business residential district; provided, that such use is explicitly and prominently authorized by the project instrument. As used in this section, "project instrument" means one or more documents, including any amendments to the documents, by whatever name denominated, containing restrictions or covenants regulating the use or occupancy of a project. As used in this section, "project" means property that is subject to project instruments, including but not limited to, condominiums and cooperative housing corporations.

D. If the project in which the time share unit, time share plan, or transient vacation rental is to be created is not a hotel and does not contain time share units, time share plans, or transient vacation rentals, then [such] the use may be [created] approved only if [such use] it is explicitly and prominently authorized by the project instruments, or if the project instruments are amended by [unanimous] a vote of the unit owners as required in the project instrument to explicitly [and prominently] authorize time sharing or transient vacation rentals.”

SECTION 13. Title 19, Maui County Code, is amended to add a new chapter to be designated and to read as follows:

“Chapter 19.65

SHORT-TERM RENTAL HOMES

19.65.010 Purpose and intent. The purpose of this chapter is to establish a permitting process for short-term rental homes, subject to appropriate restrictions and standards. It is the intent of the Council to implement land use policies consistent with the County’s general plan and the State’s land use laws; to retain the character of residential neighborhoods; to provide varied accommodations and experiences for visitors; and to allow small businesses to benefit from tourism.

19.65.020 Districts in which permitted. Short-term rental homes shall be permitted pursuant to the provisions established in each zoning district and as provided in this chapter.

19.65.030 Restrictions and standards. Short-term rental homes shall be subject to the following restrictions and standards:

A. The short-term rental home use shall be permitted in no more than two single-family dwelling units per lot. No more than one short-term rental home permit shall be approved for any lot.

B. Each permitted dwelling unit on a short-term rental home property shall be rented to one group with a single rental agreement, except:

1. On the island of Lanai; or
2. Any short-term rental home with the owner-residing on an adjacent lot.

C. The permit holder shall have a current transient accommodations tax license and general excise tax license for the short-term rental home.

D. The permit holder shall:

1. Hold legal title to the lot on which the short-term rental home is located, except as provided in subsection ~~GF~~ of this section; and

2. Serve as manager of short-term rental home; provided, that:

a. ~~The permit holder may designate an adult-family member of the permit holder as manager who is related by blood, marriage, or civil union;~~

b. The permit holder may designate an individual who shall maintain an active State of Hawaii real estate license as manager;

c. The permit holder may designate an adult as a temporary manager for up to forty-five days in a twelve-month period; and

d. The permit holder shall notify the department of:

~~(i).~~ _____ any designation of an individual as manager pursuant to this section, including a statement of the designated manager's tenure, residential and business addresses, and telephone numbers; and ~~(ii).~~ any change in the manager's addresses or telephone numbers.

E. The manager of the short-term rental home shall:

1. Be accessible to guests, neighbors, and County agencies. For purposes of this section, "accessible" means being able to answer telephone at all times ~~and being able to be physically present at the short-term rental home and must have an office or residence within twenty driving miles, one hour of a request by a guest, a neighbor, or a County agency.~~

2. Ensure compliance with State department of health regulations, this chapter, permit conditions, and other applicable laws and regulations;

3. Enforce the house policies; and

4. Collect all rental fees.

F. The short-term rental home shall only be rented when the manager is accessible.

G. The short-term rental home permit shall be issued in the name of the applicant, who shall be a natural person or trustee for a family trust. If the applicant does not hold legal title to the subject property, the applicant shall identify the possessor of legal title for the short-term rental home and affirm the applicant's legal right to apply for the permit and to rent bedrooms on the lot for short-term rental home use.

H. A person may hold no more than one short-term rental home permit; provided, that this restriction shall not be applicable when:

1. The permits are for short-term rental homes that have a County assessed market value of ~~$3,200,000 seven times the County's median single family home sales price, or higher,~~ at the time of each application; and

2. The permit holder files complete applications for the short-term rental home permits within one year of this chapter's original effective date.

I. A permit shall not be transferable; provided, that a permit may be transferred ~~by the president of a corporation to a successor president by a general or limited partner to a successor general or limited partner, or by a~~ by a trustee to a successor trustee upon notification to the department within ninety days of the transfer.

J. The applicant shall provide with the application copies of the following documents: any applicable homeowner or condominium association bylaws or rules and any other applicable private conditions, covenants, or restrictions. The documents, if any, shall assist the department in determining the character of the neighborhood.

K. The number of bedrooms used for short-term rental home use on a short-term rental home lot shall be no greater than six on Lanai and Maui, and no greater than three on Molokai. The total number of guests staying in the short-term rental home at any one time shall be no greater than two times the number of bedrooms.

L. Single-station smoke detectors shall be installed in all guest bedrooms.

M. Single-family dwellings used as short-term rental homes shall not qualify for real property tax exemptions permitted pursuant to chapter 3.48 of this code.

N. Short-term rental homes shall conform to the character of the existing neighborhood in which they are situated. Prior to issuing a permit, the department or applicable planning commission shall consider the following:

1. If a proposed short-term rental property is subject to any homeowner, condominium association, or other private conditions, covenants, or restrictions, correspondence from the association or other entity responsible for the enforcement of the conditions, covenants or restrictions is required. The correspondence shall include specific conditions that determine whether or not the proposed short-term rental home use is allowed. The correspondence shall be used to assist the department in determining the character of the neighborhood. If no such association or entity exists, this requirement shall not apply. The director and the planning commissions shall not be bound by any private conditions, covenants, or restrictions upon the subject parcel. Any such limitations may be enforced against the property owner through appropriate civil action.

~~Any applicable homeowner or condominium association bylaws or rules and any other applicable private conditions, covenants, or restrictions;~~

2. Existing land-use entitlements and uses;
3. The applicable community plan;
4. Community input; and
5. Potential adverse impacts, including excessive noise, traffic, and garbage.

O. Short-term rental homes shall be limited to single-family structures existing and constructed at least five years prior to the date of application for the short-term rental home permit.

P. A two-square-foot sign shall be displayed along the main access road of the short-term rental home identifying the valid short-term rental home permit number and twenty-four hour contact information for the owner and the manager, and contact information for the department. The signs shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 16.13 of this code.

Q. The permit holder or manager shall prominently display “house policies” within the dwelling. The house policies shall be included in the rental agreement, which shall be signed by each registered adult guest. At a minimum, the house policies shall include:

1. Quiet hours from 9:00 p.m. to 8:00 a.m., during which time the noise from the short-term rental home shall not unreasonably disturb adjacent neighbors. Sound that is audible beyond the property boundaries during non-quiet hours shall not be more excessive than would be otherwise associated with a residential area.

2. Amplified sound that is audible beyond the property boundaries of the short-term rental home is prohibited.

3. Vehicles shall be parked in the designated onsite parking area and shall not be parked on the street ~~overnight~~.

4. No parties or group gatherings other than registered guests shall occur.

R. The County shall be restricted in approving permits for short-term rental homes as distributed per the following community plan areas and as further restricted by the applicable community plan:

1. Hana: 48.
2. Kihei-Makena: 100; provided, that there are no more than five permitted short-term rental homes in the subdivision commonly known as Maui Meadows.
3. Makawao-Pukalani-Kula: 40.
4. Paia-Haiku: 88.
5. Wailuku-Kahului: 36.

6. West Maui: 88.

Short-term rental homes operating with a conditional permit pursuant to chapter 19.40 of this title that meet the criteria of this section shall be included in the number of short-term rental homes permitted pursuant to this subsection.

S. Prior to issuing a permit, the director or planning commission may impose conditions for a short-term rental home if the conditions are reasonably designed to mitigate adverse impacts to the neighborhood.

T. Any dwelling unit developed pursuant to chapter 201H, Hawaii Revised Statutes, or chapter 2.96 of this code, shall not be used as a short-term rental home.

19.65.040 Advertising. A. All advertising for a short-term rental home shall include the valid permit number issued to the permit holder.

B. Reservation websites shall include the short-term rental home house policies or a working link to the short-term rental home house policies.

C. Violations of this section shall be subject to section 19.530.030 of this title only after the following occur:

1. The department notifies the owner that such advertising shall be terminated within seven days of the receipt of the notice;

2. The advertising continues after the expiration of the seven-day period permitted by the first notice, and the department issues a second notice that such advertising shall be terminated within seven days of receipt of the second notice; and

3. Advertising continues after the expiration of the seven-day period following the second notification.

19.65.050 Procedures for application and public notice. A. Applicants shall submit an application for a short-term rental home permit to the department in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Permit application fees and permit renewal fees shall be set forth in the annual budget. All permit applications shall include the following information:

1. The name, address, and telephone number of the applicant;

2. Verification of property ownership;

3. The tax map key number of the lot on which the proposed short-term rental home is situated;

4. Proof of compliance with section 19.65.030 of this chapter;

5. A site and floor plan identifying the location of parking and bedrooms to be used for short-term rental home use;

6. A list of the names and addresses of the owners and lessees of record, within a five-hundred-foot distance of the lot of the proposed short-term rental home;

~~7. A short-term rental home inspection report certified by a licensed home or building inspector that the structures proposed for short-term rental use meet minimum health and safety standards as established by the department; and~~

7. (placeholder: re:home inspections)

8. Additional information as may be requested by the director.

B. All applicants shall send, by certified mail, written notice of the application for a short-term rental home permit to the owners and lessees of record located within a five-hundred-foot distance of the lot of the proposed short-term rental home. The written notice shall contain:

1. A description of the proposed short-term rental home operation;

2. The location of proposed on-site parking;

3. The total number of bedrooms proposed for short-term use;

4. A map identifying the short-term rental home lot in relation to all other lots within a five-hundred-foot distance; and

5. A provision that the owners and lessees of record within five-hundred feet of the proposed short-term rental home may file a written protest with the director via fax, email, or letter; provided, that all protests must be postmarked or received within forty-five days of the mailing of the notice of application.

C. At least five days prior to submitting an application for a short-term rental home, the applicant shall display a four-square-foot sign along the main access road of the proposed short-term rental home. The sign shall contain wording prescribed by the department to notify interested parties of the proposed short-term rental use on the property. The applicant shall remove the sign no later than five days after a final decision on the application. The sign shall not be subject to the provisions of chapter 16.13 of this code.

D. If planning commission review is required pursuant to subsection 19.65.060(A)(~~23~~) of this chapter, the application shall be subject to the requirements of section 19.510.020 of this title.

E. For purposes of this chapter, notice shall be considered valid if the director finds that the applicant has made a good faith effort to comply with the requirements of this section.

F. If an application does not meet the legal requirements of this chapter, it shall be denied.

19.65.060 Permit processing. A. The short-term rental home permit process shall be as follows:

1. The applicant for a short-term rental home permit shall file an application with the director as provided in section 19.65.050 of this chapter.

2. The director shall approve or deny the application pursuant to the requirements of this chapter; provided, that the applicable planning commission shall approve or deny the permit pursuant to the requirements of this chapter when any of the following occur:

a. The director receives two or more written protests from the owners or lessees of record on a lot adjacent or directly across the street to a proposed short-term rental home;

b. Thirty percent or more of the owners and lessees of record within five-hundred feet of the proposed short-term rental home lot submit written protests to the director when there are less than forty properties within five-hundred feet of the proposed short-term rental home lot;

c. Fifteen percent or more of the owners and lessees of record within five-hundred feet of the proposed short-term rental home lot submit written protests to the director when there are forty or more properties within five-hundred feet of the proposed short-term rental home lot;

d. A variance is obtained to meet the requirements for a short-term rental home;

e. An existing short-term rental home is operating within five-hundred feet of the proposed short-term rental home lot, except for applications submitted prior to December 31, 2012;
or

f. The proposed short-term rental home is located within the Hana community plan area, and the number of bedrooms proposed for short-term rental home use is greater than three;

3. The Department or appropriate planning commission may consider, but are not limited to the following factors in reviewing, and approving or denying, an application:

a. The number and distance to other permitted short-term rental homes from the subject parcel;

b. The number and substance of protests for the short-term rental home application and protests related to the cumulative short-term homes in the larger neighborhood or area;

c. Existing or past complaints about rental operations on the property;

d. Existing or past noncompliance with government requirements and degree of cooperation by the applicant to come into compliance; and

e. Correspondence received by the Department pursuant to 19.65.030(N)(1).

B. The Director may transmit applications for public hearing by the Commission in accordance with complaints received or some other substantive reason.

C. Short-term rental homes that are operating under existing conditional permits that meet the criteria set forth in 19.65.030 operations shall be given the option of transferring existing permits with renewals, subject to section 19.65.070.A, or may continue to operate under existing conditional permit requirements and time extension procedures.

D. In addition to any enforcement action pursuant to section 19.530.030 of this title, the rules of the appropriate planning commission, and the rules of the department, the permit for the short-term rental home shall be denied and the owner-applicant may not re-apply for another permit for two years after the date of denial if it is shown that the applicant provided false or misleading information during the application process;

E. In the department's annual report, the director shall specify the number of short-term rental home permit applications received and approved.

~~B. In the department's annual report, the director shall specify the number of short-term rental home permit applications received and approved.~~

19.65.070 Compliance and revocation. A. Initial short-term rental home permits shall be valid for a maximum period of one year with an extension of two years if there are no recorded complaints; shorter extension periods may be required by the director to mitigate adverse impacts based on the department's investigation of recorded complaints.

B. Subsequent permit renewals may be granted by the director for terms of up to five years on Lanai and Maui and up to one year on Molokai. In reviewing a renewal application, the director shall require evidence of compliance with conditions of the short-term rental home permit and this chapter. Verification of appropriate federal, state, and County tax filings shall be submitted by June 30 of each year for the prior calendar year. No permit shall be renewed without written verification of appropriate federal, state, and County tax filings. No permit shall be renewed if the operation of the short-term rental home has created adverse impacts or has caused the loss of the character to the neighborhood in which it is situated.

C. All permits shall require compliance inspections by the department at reasonable times and upon presentation of appropriate credentials.

D. Upon approval of the permit, the permit holder shall send, by certified mail, a copy of the permit approval letter containing the conditions of approval, the permit number, twenty-four hour contact information for the manager, and the department's contact information to the owners and lessees of abutting properties and their adjacent properties and properties directly across the street from the short-term rental home. Proof of mailing shall be submitted to the department within thirty days of the permit approval.

E. The permit holder shall send, by certified mail, notification of any change to contact information for the manager to the department, the owners or lessees of abutting properties and their adjacent properties and those directly across the street from the short-term rental home. Such notification shall be sent prior to, or immediately after, the change in contact information occurs. Proof of mailing shall be submitted to the department within thirty days of the mailing.

F. Revocation procedures.

1. The short-term rental home permit shall be revoked, pursuant to section 19.530.030 of this title, the rules of the appropriate planning commission, and the rules of the department, if the director finds:

a. The permit holder provided false or misleading information during the application process; or

b. The permit holder is in violation of State department of health regulations, this chapter, the permit conditions, or any other applicable laws or regulations; or

c. The permit holder is delinquent in payment of state or County taxes, fines, or penalties assessed in relation to the short-term rental home.

2. If the department receives a total of three complaints from two or more neighbors about a short-time rental home within a twelve-month period and the director's investigation of the complaints is inconclusive, the director shall refer the complaints to the applicable planning commission for a determination of whether the permit shall be revoked. The planning commission may consider any of the following:

- a. Evidence of non-responsive management;
- b. Police reports of noise or other disturbances on the property;
- c. Warnings resulting from requests for service; and
- d. Neighbor complaints of noise and other disturbances relating to the short-term rental operations.

3. If the permit is revoked, the department shall not accept a new application for a short-term rental home permit from the permit holder for two years after the date of revocation.

G. No later than January 15 of each calendar year, the department shall transmit to the real property tax division of the department of finance an annual list of all short-term rental homes as of January 1 of that calendar year. The real property tax division shall regularly review its records and determine that no short-term rental home has an exemption pursuant to chapter 3.48 of this code.

19.65.080 Enforcement. ~~A. Paid advertising that offers a property as a transient vacation rental shall constitute prima facie evidence of the operation of a transient vacation rental prohibited by chapter 19.37 of this title on the property, and the burden of proof shall be on the owner, operator, or lessee to establish that the subject property is not being used as a transient vacation rental prohibited by chapter 19.37.~~

~~B. A positive response by an owner, operator, or lessee to any unpaid advertising to rent a home as a transient vacation rental prohibited by chapter 19.37 of this title shall constitute prima facie evidence of the operation of a transient vacation rental on the property, and the burden of proof shall be on the owner, operator, or lessee to establish that the subject property is not being used as a transient vacation rental prohibited by chapter 19.37.~~

~~C. Advertising for a short-term rental home without a valid permit number is prohibited and may result in enforcement action pursuant to section 19.530.030 of this title; provided, that:~~

- ~~1. The permit holder shall be notified that all advertising without a valid permit number shall be terminated within seven days of the notice;~~
- ~~2. A second warning may be issued after an additional seven days if the advertising without a valid permit number continues; and~~

~~3. Enforcement action may commence pursuant to section 19.530.030 of this title if advertising without a valid permit number continues after two warnings.~~

~~D. The department shall notify the state department of taxation of violations of section 19.65.030(B) of this chapter.~~

~~E. The department shall notify the real property tax division of the department of finance of violations of this chapter.~~

A. Advertising that offers a property as a short-term rental home shall constitute prima facie evidence of the operation of a short-term rental home on the property and the burden of proof shall be on the owner, operator, or lessee of record to establish that the subject property is not being used as a legal short-term rental home.

B. Any communication by a property owner, operator, or lessee to any person where the owner, operator or lessee offers their home for rent as a short-term rental home on the property and the burden of proof shall be on the owner, operator, or lessee of record to establish that the subject property is not being used as a legal short-term rental home.

C. Advertising for a short-term rental home without a valid permit number is prohibited and may result in enforcement action pursuant to section 19.530.030 of this title; provided, that:

1. The permit holder shall be notified that all advertising without a valid permit number shall be terminated within seven days of the notice; and

2. Enforcement action, including fines, may commence pursuant to section 19.530.030 of this title if advertising without a valid permit number continues after such warning.

D. Operating without a valid permit is prohibited. Evidence of operation may include: guest testimony, rental agreements, receipts, or any other information deemed relevant by the department. Operating without a permit would result in a property owner being ineligible to apply for a permit for five years.

E. (placeholder re: "Letter of Intent" to file an application.)

F. The department shall notify the real property tax division of the department of finance of violations of this chapter.

G. The department may file a report with the state department of taxation for properties with violations pursuant pursuant to 19.65.060(F).

19.65.090 Administrative rules. The director may adopt administrative rules to implement the provisions of this chapter."

SECTION 14. Material to be repealed is bracketed. New material is underscored. In printing this bill, the County Clerk need not include the brackets, the bracketed material, or the underscoring.

SECTION 15. This ordinance shall take effect upon its approval. A pending application for a Conditional Permit pursuant to Chapter 19.40, Maui County Code, shall be deemed an applicant for a short-term rental home and processed in accordance with Chapter 19.65, Maui County Code, if the Planning Director finds that the proposed use qualifies as a short-term rental home.
