County Summer Youth Program Extended to Aug. 14

- The County's Summer Youth Program in partnership with Maui Family YMCA has been extended another two weeks, starting Monday, Aug. 3, to Aug. 14.
- The program extension follows the State Board of Education's delay to reopen schools on Aug. 17.
- Cost for the program will remain just $10 per week, per family.

County Summer Youth Program Extended to Aug. 14

- The summer youth program is funded by CARES Act monies.
- We believe it is vital that we continue to assist our working families and keiki, providing them with a safe place to learn and play.

Youth Program Director

Maui Family YMCA

County Summer Youth Program Extended to Aug. 14

- Registration for the extended period is now open.
- Parents can register their children for the summer youth program at www.MauiYMCA.org/day-camps/.
- The program has accommodated around 400 keiki, and has the ability to increase capacity and sites.

County Summer Youth Program Extended to Aug. 14

- Sites families can register for are:
 - War Memorial Gym
 - South Maui Community Park Gym
 - Eddie Tam Gym
- YMCA continues to follow sanitation procedures, physical distancing rules, conduct temperature checks and other guidelines by the DOH and CDC.
- For more information, visit www.MauiYMCA.org or call (808) 242-9007.

Maui Police Department Enforcing 14-Day Quarantine Order

- Maui Police Department continues to enforce State and County rules, including the mandatory 14-day Quarantine Order.
- To report a suspected violation of the 14-day quarantine, email MPDquarantine@mpd.net.
 - Maui Police Department will follow up on reports.

Maui Police Department Enforcing 14-Day Quarantine Order

- Important reminder: 9-1-1 is for emergency use only.
- Mahalo to our police officers for their tireless work to keep our community safe during these very difficult times.

Travassa Hana employees in process of being re-hired

- Travassa Hana ownership has changed to a different entity and is now being managed by Hyatt.
- We confirmed that Hyatt intends to retain all employees who were furloughed.
- The resort will be renamed to Hana-Maui Resort and expects to resume operations once travel restrictions are lifted.
- We want to mahalo Hyatt for supporting our Hana and East Maui residents.

About 180 tested at drive-through in West Maui

- About 180 were tested today during the drive-through testing at Lahaina Aquatic Center.
 - 155 PCR tests
 - 22 Antibody tests
- On Wednesday, about 230 people were tested in the drive-through at Keopuolani Regional Park.

About 180 tested at drive-through in West Maui

- Mahalo to Minit Medical, the Hawaii National Guard and our County Parks and Recreation for helping to provide these testing events for our community.
- REMINDER: The public can call their doctor or one of our many local medical providers to get tested at any time
 - You don't need to wait for a drive-through testing event.
- We plan to continue partnering with Minit Medical and others to ensure we maintain adequate testing for our community.

Updated Public Health Emergency Rules

- The Governor has approved the County of Maui's updated Public Health Emergency Rules.
- Indoor and outdoor social gatherings are now limited to no more than 10 people.
 - This rule change does not apply to essential or designated businesses and operations, which have supervision, monitoring and other enforcement protocols.

Updated Public Health Emergency Rules

- County parks and beach parks remain open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.
- The use of large structures that may attract gatherings, such as tents and pavilions, are prohibited.

Updated Public Health Emergency Rules

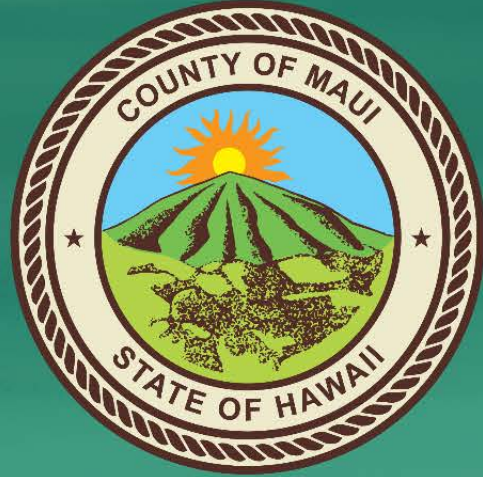

- The County has clarified its section on transient vacation rentals in regards to new or “intended” Hawaii residents.
- NO TVR may be designated as a quarantine location.
- However, new or intended residents may use a long-term rental for their 14-day mandatory quarantine.
 - A long-term rental unit can be used ONLY ONCE as a quarantine location in any 6-month period.
- Property owners will be held responsible and documentation shall be provided to the County if a violation is suspected.

Maui Lani Roundabout – Use Right Turn Signal

- The Maui Lani Roundabout kicked off its grand opening on Wednesday and we have not received any reports of major traffic issues.
- However, we have received reports that many drivers are not using their right-turn signal when exiting the roundabout.
- Remember: Any time you're about to exit the roundabout, USE YOUR RIGHT-TURN SIGNAL.

Maui Lani Roundabout – Use Right Turn Signal

- This helps other drivers know when they can safely enter the roundabout circle.
- To learn more about how to drive in a roundabout, visit www.MauiCounty.gov/PublicWorks.
